"There are 'friends' who destroy each other, but a real friend sticks closer than a brother." -Proverbs 18:24. This quote reminds me of Andres Hernandez-Vasquez in many ways. To me and the other original Mahetzi boys, Andres was like a brother, and one of the most peaceful souls, I have ever met. Andres and I would do everything together, along with some other close friends of ours like Helmer, Brayan, Angel, and Chirry. We were an unstoppable team. We would celebrate holidays together, we would dance together, go to church together, and even have unforgettable sleepovers together! Andres was a very talented dancer. The moment he stepped foot on that stage he would let the rhythm of the music get to his feet and dance on forever, and he was great at it. Andres was a true champion on and off the stage, he devoted his life to God, he was in the church choir, was learning the guitar, and was an amazing soccer player. He was not only a friend, but a son, a brother, a grandson, and a nephew. He has impacted many lives in his community. Andres was only 14 years old when he lost over years battle, fighting a brain tumor. His passing broke hearts from here to Mexico. But he is not forgotten and he has changed how I and many others view the world and how we should treat one another. In other words "No preciso ni decir todo eso que te digo pero es bueno así sentir que yo tengo un gran Amigo." – Roberto Carlos.
